In a major blow to their final aspirations, Gawler's Div 1 team were comprehensively beaten by lowly ranked Brighton.With only Brent Marshall's lads able to post a win, the team find themselves precariously positioned in 6th spot.The good news is, wins from their last 3 games should be enough to see them playing finals.

With 3 solid rink wins and a draw, the Div 4 team grabbed 15 of the 16 points on offer to maintain their top 4 spot.
With 2 of their last 3 games against sides below them on the ladder and a settled lineup, finals action is now within their grasp.

Fighting relegation, it was a tough assignment for the Div 5 team, up against top 4 side Salisbury White on their home deck. Behind by 35 shots at the end of play, they finished pointless.
With 2 of their last 3 games against sides also in the relegation zone, the importance of every point becomes paramount.

Div 7 continue to impress with a 26 shot victory over third placed Clearview. Gordon Nussey's four starred with a 29-6 scoreline to our any thoughts of an upset out of the question With only 3 games remaining and points close at the top of the ladder, the pennant will be a close run thing.
